Our Clients

Friends First have used the services of Robert Nowlan for due diligence on a number of acquisitions and related matters and have found the performance of the planning advice to be professional and delivered within the tight time constraints required. We have no hesitation in recommending their service.

Claire Solon, Friends First Group

U Store It have used RW Nowlan & Associates on a number of occasions for Property and Planning Advisory services. The service we received each and every time was excellent and we are always very happy with the outcome. They are extremely professional in their approach and we would happily recommend them to any organisation in need of these services.

Seamus Lonergan, U Store It

We have used the services of RW Nowlan & Associates for property acquisitions and planning as part of the CAS Government residential purchase programme. We found their services invaluable in purchasing a very large stock of residential properties on the open market. We would have no hesitation in using the services of Robert Nowlan and his team again.
